	9.	On 11 November, Staleg I was occupied below capacity. Only 9 buildings were lighted after nightfall. Between 30 october and 11 November, 50 troops were seen engaged in physical training and 80 troops received theoretical instruction. 25X1C Marksmanship training with carbines in the gravel pit involved about 50 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets on 31 Detober, about 8 troops on 4 November, and about 80 troops on 11 November.
25X1C
	10.	On 11 November, Stalag II was occupied. On 30 October and 5 November, about 30 troops practiced throwing of hand grenades and, on 2 November, about 100 troops wearing red-bordered black epsulets left the installation for marksmanship with carbines in the wooded area located to the south.
25X1C		25X1C
	11.	On 5 and 9 November, marksmanship with 2 x 132-mm rocket launchers was held south of Stalag II. 5
	12.	On 11 November, the former Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik was occupied. No training other than firing with carbines, on 6 November, was observed in the barracks area. On 5 November, about 250 troops left the quartering area toward the wooded area. Between 30 October and 11 November, a local resident stated that the cooperative shop was to be restored in the former Norddeutsche Maschinenfabrik and the Soviet Army had agreed on vacating the installation by 1 January 1954.
25X1A	1.	Comment. According to another source, it is possible that units of the 34th Arty Div (US) engaged in firing practices at Jueterbog as late as 29 October.
